What is International Dancing?

International folk dancing is an exuberant, physical expression of joy. It includes line, circle, couple, square & set dances for beginners & professionals. Since 1953, KDI has embraced a variety of ethnic dance styles including Israeli, Square, English Country, Scottish, Turkish, European, Social, Clogging, & Contra. There is magic to ethnic dancing when you extend a hand or coordinate a movement with another.

Featuring Teaching By

Ed Austin (International)

Paul Henze (Squares)

Ahmet Luleci (Turkish)

Marcie Van Cleave (English/Contra/Balkan)

Who Comes to KDI?

The KDI family is multigenerational, with dancers ranging from preschool to retired. Some dancers have returned for 30-40 years, attending first with their children and later with their grandchildren.

Picture yourself welcomed into a circle of dancers where an 80 year old gentleman is partnered with a 20's young lady; both of them experiencing the perfect swing. In the same group, a 14 year old boy carries his 5 year old ideal partner since he can never step on her feet. A middle aged couple dance with two beginners to help them learn and embrace dancing.
