🌸 THIS YEAR'S TALENT

FOXFIRE is Karen Axelrod – piano and Daron Douglas - fiddle. Their fresh takes on old tunes have led to extraordinary dancing from California to Copenhagen. Foxfire plays at CDSS summer camps, at the John C Campbell Folk School and Playford balls and contradance festivals throughout the year. They brighten the English country dance repertoire and – to quote from Playford's 1651 Dancing Master – are part of an enduring tradition whose "Art [is] Excellent for Recreation, making the body active and strong, graceful in deportment and very much beseeming a Gentleman." (They beseem Ladies, too.) Come set and turn single to the noble, lighthearted and mysterious music of Foxfire. They have two wonderful CD's, "The Introduction" and "Winter Oranges."

ROBIN HAYDEN leads English country dancing in her home community of Amherst, MA and at workshops, weekends, camps, festivals and balls across North America. The range of expressiveness in English country dance has beguiled and inspired her as a dancer going on 37 years now. As a leader, she is particularly interested in techniques for understanding, articulating, and improving the way we move, and thus the way we express ourselves within this idiom – individually, as partners, and as a set. Robin is also the Director of Development for the Country Dance & Song Society.
